

Giant Pacific octopus

Enteroctopus dofleini

Fast Facts

1. Octopuses are the ultimate hide-and-seek players. They can change colour and squeeze into incredibly small spaces. Can you draw a great ocean hiding place around your octopus?
2. The giant Pacific octopus, found off our coast, is the largest known octopus species in the world. Some of the largest ones can stretch their arms really wide. How wide can you reach if you stretch your arms out to the side?
